Don't Miss Out on Summer Financial Aid!

questions.

If you are planning to use financial aid for summer courses, there are certain steps you need to take. You must complete the FAFSA each school year to apply for financial aid, but summer courses require an extra form and a FAFSA from the previous academic year. To make sure you don't leave money on the table, you should review the financial aid policies and reach out to the Office of Financial Aid with any started. . ."

Marvin Williams looks for opportunities where they may not be obvious. His OCL courses have allowed Williams to share and receive different perspectives on change. But what sets him apart from his classmates is that Williams is one of only two teachers currently in the program.

"I found this to be an opportunity for a teacher to learn how to be involved in the change going on in education. So much has changed since I
